

208 Delancey Hosts Neighborhood Favorites at First Onsite Event

🕒 October 29, 2021 📖 1 Min Read

credit: Jared Siskin

Share This!

208 Delancey, a new condominium development in the Lower East Side partnered with local eateries to host an event, “A Taste of the Lower East Side.” The event was a way to celebrate its neighborhood launch, showcasing the iconic eats and vibrancy of the neighborhood. It was open to select brokers, media and real estate influencers.

Throughout the night, about 50 brokers stopped by the sales gallery to meet the 208 Delancey team including Bentley Zhao, Chairman and CEO of New Empire and Ian Slater, leading agent of the Compass sales team, while enjoying light bites and sips from local restaurants Nom Wah, Veselka, Boulton and Watt, Riverdel Cheese and Mille Nonne.

The caterers served their most famed menu items in the two model homes staged by ASH NYC, while brokers and influencers chatted and snapped photos of the space and the great food.

Many of the caterers were thrilled to be a part of the neighborhood event, as they have been long time believers in the Lower East Side and have been watching the building’s construction.